

Kenworthy—Reed.

Special to The New York Times.

MILFORD, Penn., April 17.—Dr. William Bartle Kenworthy, a practicing physician of Milford, and Miss Cornine Howard Reed, daughter of Dr. Henry B. Reed, a former resident of Brooklyn, were married at 6 o'clock this evening in the Church of the Good Shepherd, in the presence of 400 friends. The Rev. C. B. Carpenter performed the ceremony. The maid of honor was Miss Louise Fay of Brooklyn, and the bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Howard of Brooklyn and Miss Toneria Reed, sister of the bride. Mr. Weaver of New York City, a cousin of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Dr. Talmage of New York City and Howard Reed of Milford, a brother of the bride.

Dixon—Tucker.

HANOVER, N. H., April 17.—A pretty event in Old Chapel, the place of worship for the Dartmouth students, was the marriage to-night of Miss Alice Lester Tucker, eldest daughter of President William J. Tucker of the college, to Prof. Frank Haigh Dixon, a member of the Faculty. Prof. Dixon is from Winona, Minn., and is a graduate of the University of Michigan. The bride is a graduate of Smith College.

On Saturday Prof. and Mrs. Dixon will sail for Europe from Philadelphia, as Prof. Dixon is to engage in special work in investigating the methods in practice in British economic schools in order to prepare for his work in the Tuck School of Administration.

Noble—Nichol.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 17.—Miss Dakota M. Nichol, daughter of Thomas J. Nichol, Vice President and General Manager of the Rochester Railway Company, and Frederick C. Noble, son of Alfred Noble, civil engineer and member of the United States Nicaragua Canal Commission, were married last evening at St. Paul's Church by the Rev. Murray Bartlett. After the ceremony a reception for immediate friends and relatives was held at the Nichol residence. Mr. and Mrs. Noble will make their home in New York City after a wedding trip which may take them to Europe.

Chamberlain—Chapman.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Eugene Tyler Chamberlain, Commissioner of Navigation, and Mrs. Mary Lee Chapman were married very quietly at the rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-day by the Rev. Alfred Harding. Mr. Chamberlain is well known in New York political and newspaper circles. He is an active member of the Metropolitan Club of this city.
